IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS REGARDING YOUR CHECKING ACCOUNT

You must examine your statement carefully and promptly. You are in the best position to discover errors and unauthorized transactions on your account. If you fail to notify us in writing of suspected problems or unauthorized transactions within the time periods as specified in the Deposit Agreement (which periods are no more than 60 days after we make the statement available to you and in some cases 30 days or less), we are not liable to you for, and you agree not to make a claim against us for problems or unauthorized transactions.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS

Telephone or write your local branch of account, listed on the statement front, as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we send you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

1. Tell us your name and account number.
2. Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about and explain as clearly as you can why you believe there is an error or why you need more information.
3. Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If our investigation takes longer than 10 business days from the date we received your notification, we will provisionally credit your account for the disputed amount until our investigation has been completed. If the disputed amount involves an electronic funds transfer to or from an account within 30 days after the first deposit to the account was made, we will provisionally credit your account within 20 business days from the date we receive your notification.
